Gable tents take a spin on the classic frame tents. They give you an "A - frame" look with a high peak and vertical ends. Whether it be weddings, corporate events, or festivals, these tents are universal for your needs.

Liner

A pleated tent liner is a simple installation in the ceiling portion of a tent that works great to mask the framework of the tent itself. It softens the atmosphere of the space, and provides a sophisticated and graceful look for all special occasions.

Leg Drapes

Along with the tent liner, leg drapes also hide the structure of a tent in a neat and clean way. Paired together, they conceal in fashion and reveal an airy element.

Pipe & Drape

A simple and effective way to define or alter a space. Our sheer drapes evoke a dreamy element in wedding settings, while velour ones add a touch of luxury and serve as an opaque barrier. Expo drapes have gained widespread popularity for their utility at trade shows and conventions.

Our team can walk you through the options for tent leg lengths, liner sizes, options for walls, draping, lighting and more!
